

Rubric Made Using:

RubiStar (<http://rubistar.4teachers.org>)

PYP Diorama

Teacher Name: Mrs. Reese

Student Name: _____

CATEGORY	4	3	2	1
Complete	All characters and scenery from the text are presented in the diorama.	All characters and most scenery from the text are presented in the diorama.	Most characters and some scenery from the text are presented in the diorama.	Several characters and/or a lot of scenery are missing.
Accurate	The diorama faithfully represents the descriptions of people and places in the book.	The diorama attempts to represent the descriptions of people and places, but has a couple noticeable differences.	The diorama attempts to represent the descriptions of people and places, but has several noticeable differences.	While the people and places are in the diorama, they do not match the descriptions from the text.
Detail	All items in the diorama are handmade, 3-D, to scale, and extremely detailed in color, texture, and shape.	All items in the diorama are handmade, 3-D, to scale, and somewhat detailed in color, texture, and shape.	Nearly all items in the diorama are handmade, 3-D, to scale, and somewhat detailed in color, texture, and shape.	Several items in the diorama are NOT handmade, 3-D, to scale, or somewhat detailed in color, texture, and shape.
Neatness	Project is neat and tidy without visible smudges, tape, or glue.	Project is 90% neat and tidy and without visible smudges, tape, or glue.	Project is 80% neat and tidy without visible smudges, tape, or glue.	Project is messy, or looks like it was thrown together.

Paragraph	Paragraph explains what is happening in the scene, and why you chose to use this particular scene. Paragraph is typed and contains 0-1 errors in spelling, grammar, or punctuation. Paragraph is attached to the diorama.	Paragraph explains what is happening in the scene, and why you chose to use this particular scene. Paragraph is typed and contains 2-3 errors in spelling, grammar, or punctuation. Paragraph is attached to the diorama.	Paragraph explains what is happening in the scene, and why you chose to use this particular scene. Paragraph is typed and contains 4-5 errors in spelling, grammar, or punctuation.	Paragraph does NOT explain what is happening in the scene, and why you chose to use this particular scene. OR paragraph is typed and contains 6+ errors in spelling, grammar, or punctuation.
-----------	---	---	---	---

Date Created: July 27, 2010